"... Forgive my grief for one removed,
Thy creature, whom I found so fair,
I trust he lives in thee, and there
I find him worthier to be loved..."

Dedication

HERBERT THOMAS APPENZELLER

Cooch, professor, counselor, trainer, life guard, "boondocker," and friend of every student and faculty member . . . but few titles for this person about whom the College whirrs. Certainly, no one connected with Chowan College has done more to instill in the students under his direction the virtues which are associated with a cultured being. No one has been able to spread the name of Chowan College and add to its reputation in the manner of the "Coach." No one has been able together "so little" and receive "so much." His talent has been scarce for he has had to compete with the larger colleges and universities. His staff and equipment have been meager. But this only brings out the man. The staff of the CHOWANOKA is aware of his many "extra-curricular activities"—those above and beyond the call of duty. There is something more than just acquiring another athlete that prompts him to seek employment for prospective students, beg loans from people interested in the athletic program, and even underwrite the expenses of others. Never has he asked the question, "What do I get out of this?" Always he asks, "What can I do to help?" He came to Chowan when the school faced almost insurmountable odds. We think that the success of Chowan College has been due, in a large measure, to his leadership, teaching, working, public relations. Therefore, we dedicate the 1955 CHOWANOKA to HERBERT THOMAS APPENZELLER.

President's Club

The Presidents or "Wheels" really roll around the campus of Chowan College. In fact, they roll so rapidly that they hardly pause long enough to smile for the birdie. Actually, the Privileged Few — everybody cannot be a president — did assemble once for the photographer, but the resulting photograph showed several demure persons — they had their eyes closed. And, afterwards we could not get them together for a picture. Therefore, Tilley and Barden will have to continue their naps.

What more ignominious title can one hold than that of "President of the Presidents Club?"

 Not pictured: Ed Griffin, Billy Joe Dickens.

Men's Judiciary

Co-ordinating the relations between the Administration and the male segment of the student body was the letter and spirit of the goal of the Men's Judiciary. Organized some time after school began and struggling against this handicap, the Judiciary never the less strove to fulfill its obligations to both faculty member and student. It handled several student discipline cases, maintained order in the dormitories, and on occasion made recommendations to the Administration on situations involving the male students. The members of the Judiciary are elected to office by popular ballot.

 Not pictured: Ed Griffin, Secretary-Treasurer.

Seated: Pauline Hardee, Sue Godwin, Jean Carol Parker. Standing: Mildred Wheeler, Virginia Drake, Carolyn Davis, Joyce Harris, Jean Early.

Women's Judiciary

The purpose of the Women's Judiciary is to aid in better living conditions for the boarding women of Chowan College, to aid in developing the women as leaders and followers, and to aid in the improvement of the College as a whole. The Judiciary consists of women elected to office by popular ballot.

The events of the Women's Judiciary during the past year were few, but these events were completed with anticipation. It helped to provide a Christmas vacation for two Cuban students. The money collected from a faculty-student basketball game was used to redecorate the Ladies' Lounge. The Judiciary spent a week-end at Nags Head making plans for 1955-1956.

Ministerial Alliance

The Ministerial Alliance, composed of the ministerial students at Chowon College, met regularly with well-planned programs. The Alliance co-operated with all religious activities in seeking to promote a spiritual atmosphere on the campus. Some of its members held pastorates, others did supply work in the churches of the area, some conducted revivals centered around the youth of the church, and some held their first Easter Sun Rise service.

Seated: Robert Mulder, Secretary-Treasurer; Fred King Vice-President. Standing: Don Page, President.

The Baptist Student Union, a focusing religious unit at Chowan College, attempts to enlist and utilize each student in Christian service. Through its unit organizations — the Sunday School classes and the Training Union — it seeks to link the college with the local Baptist churches, and through its campus organizations — the Young Women's Auxiliary, the Ministerial Alliance, and the Vesper Hour — it carries forward an active program each week. The Executive and Greater Councils sponsor the work, both meeting in regular sessions weekly and quarterly, respectively.

Student Union

The B. S. U. attended the State B. S. U. conventions in Salisbury and Lexington and the Foreign Mission Board meeting in Richmond, Virginia.

It is the purpose of the B. S. U., by way of Christian guidance and activity among the students on Chowan College campus, to bring about close relationships between the College and the churches of the community.

Lula Pearl White was the State Junior-College Representative for 1954-1955 and Emory Byrum is the newly elected Junior College Representative for 1955-1956.

The B. S. U. sponsored the Halloween and Valentine parties during the year.

The Chawan College Oratorio Society was organized in September, 1954 with letters of invitation being sent out to all the surrounding churches within a 25 mile radius to all those interested in singing in such a group. Two oratorios were given during the year. The first one being Handel's "Messiah." Guest soloists from Rocky Mount assisted in its presentation. The second presentation was Stainer's "The Crucifixion" and soloists came from the Oratoria membership.

The Sextet appeared with the Glee Club in various churches and made numerous other appearances for the W. M. U. meetings and Associational meetings.

The Glee Club made appearances at Conway, Great Fork, Patecasi, Jackson, Mount Tabar, Hertford, and Murfreesboro Baptist Churches. They made a trip to Jacksonville and Davis to sing in churches there and combined the trip with pleasure by going to Atlantic Beach.

For the Spring season and the final concert of the year, the Glee Club presented a musical program on May 24. This program consisted of secular numbers featuring several selections in solos, duets, and a sextet.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was organized during the second quarter. The group is interested in learning to sing Spanish songs. Future programs will include short talks in simple Spanish by the Cuban members, movies, and games. Anyone who has ever studied Spanish or who is interested in the Spanish language or people will be welcomed into the club. Miss Betty Moore is the advisor.

Block C Club

During the '54-'55 year, the Block C Club underwent a complete reorganization under the leadership of President "Shad" Barden and Advisor Herb Appenzeller. Heading the list of projects for the year was the construction of a new student lounge in the room next to the Student Store, replete with pine panelling and mahogany stained booths, by the free-labor of the club in co-operation with the Administration. In a drive for funds to buy award jackets, the club sponsored three other events, "Chowan Capers," the first annual Blue-White Football Game, and the Central Prison Varieties.

The purpose of the Phi Lambda Pi is to further the interest of the students of Chawan College, to provide and to encourage an atmosphere of friendliness on the campus, to provide entertainment and social life, to discuss literary trends and materials, to develop oratorical abilities, and to train members in the procedure of conducting meetings. Students are invited to join by letter. The most outstanding event of the year was the May Day which was held in a colonial setting.

Zeta Alpha Sigma

The Zeta Alpha Sigma has had to rise from the bottom. Two years ago the entire society was depleted by graduation. Therefore, a building program began during the 1953-54 year. And, what happens to the eight members! One of eight returns. Billy Finch became president and he directed the society in drawing up a new constitution and securing members. Before the end of the year Zeta Alpha Sigma began functioning as a society.

Shad Barden

The tribe was forced to come from behind to defeat tough Newport News Apprentice School 19-6. Without the Services of quarterback, Herman Clark, the brunt of the offensive work fell on Al Pierce's broad shoulders, who scored two touchdowns and averaged six yards plus per carry from his fullback post.

Gardner Webb's Bulldogs faught back from a 6-0 deficit to tie their Baptist cousins from Murfreesboro in a game played in Rutherford, N. C. The Braves went ahead early in the game on Crenshaw's 35 yard reverse, but could not hold their lead. Bobby Ryder sparked the second half offense.

Dan Page

Earl Wright

Herman Clark

Ed "Mata" Meadors

The Chowan Braves opened the 1954 gridiron campaign with a 13-6 victory over the Elon College Freshmen. "Poop" de la Cruz came off the bench to score Chowan's first touchdown, and a Herman Clark to Jim Gravely aerial clicked for the winning score.

Ike Goy

Bryan "Smitty" Smith

E. B. "Buck" Adcock

Edward Chaplin

Earl Wright romped to an 88 yard touchdown early in the November 19 game with Camden Academy from Camden, South Carolina, but the Broves did not have the "Point After Touchdown" touch to enable them to turn back the visitors. The explosive offensive game went to Camden 20-19. The game was full of offensive guns — Jim Gravely, Herman Clark, Jack Crenshaw.

Billy Joe Dickens

Al Pierce

Ted Rollins

Gene Ferguson

On October 29 an 81 yard jaunt, a 19 yard off-tackle slant, and a blocked punt enabled the Chawan Braves to subdue the University of Richmond Junior Varsity Spiders. The Braves stayed in front all the way on the strength of plays by Jack Crenshaw, Donnie Taylor, Gene Ferguson, Ted Rollins, Ben Rich, Carrall Daniels and Ed Chaplain. In fact, it was a team victory and not on individual feat. The contest went to the Braves by a 19 to 7 score.

On Your Mark. Get Set. Ready.

Who' Happ'n? Where's All the Life?

Look Out There, Man! Who Missed Whom?

Here We Go! Where's That Double Stripes?

These four lads hung around until the end. Stalwarts they were. They are Robert Klatt (l), Billy Warren (top center), Dan Lucas (r), and Dannie Taylor (bottom center).

Basketball is a sore subject. In fact, we had rather not say too much about basketball of 1954-55. Instead, we should talk about the prospects for 1955-56. Things look much brighter for a winning season. Coach Ap-penzeller faced a complete rebuilding job at the close of a victorious 1953-54 season when the Broves came in third in the Junior College Conference race, but he didn't have any Hilliard Greenes, Kenneth Hoswells and so on. At times the Broves looked exceptionally good. Yet, they never did weld themselves into a team.

The Jayees, on the other hand, compiled an admirable win slate. The larger high schools and service units provided competition. These lads should blossom out into starters in one more year.

Marshalls

Marshalls for graduation are pictured from left to right: Peggy Brown, Robert Mulder, Leonard Pulley, Nancy Rawls, and Johnny Hill, Chief.

Everyone looks forward to graduation. Some few look forward with even greater anticipation than others because they are vying for academic honors. The honor rolls for 1954-55 almost doubled in number and the competition was keen. On hundredths of a point separated Johnny Hill and Nancy Rawls. Close on their heels came the other three marshalls. It is an honor for the College to be served by these distinguished students.
